MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you" (John 15:12-14).

Those farewell words from Jesus to the apostles gathered for their Last Supper with their Lord are preserved for us not only as a memory but in the living reality of the Eucharist. Jesus continues to fill us with His love, the sacrificial gift of His life laid down for us on the Cross made present across place and time. And then, always, we are sent from Mass to do what He commands us: to love with that same kind of self-giving love that is not mere sentiment but becomes flesh and blood in our daily experiences. It reveals a great deal about the Eucharist that any Catholic can say something about the Living Bread come down from heaven, but no Catholic can say everything about it. It is an infinite Gift beyond our words and ideas, but not beyond our sharing. As St. Augustine once put it:

"In the Eucharist, God has given us everything. Although God is all-powerful, He is unable to give more; though supremely wise, He knows not how to give more; though vastly rich, He has not more to give."

As you know from Bishop Kettler's letter and other coverage, at their June meeting the U.S. Bishops voted to prepare a document inviting all of us to renew our faith and commitment to Catholic life through the Eucharist, accompanied by a "National Eucharistic Revival" in every diocese (details to be developed). The proposed three-part outline of the effort builds on themes from St. John Paul II: the Eucharist as a mystery to be believed, to be celebrated, and to be lived.

Research shows a declining faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, that Jesus truly gives us His Body and Blood in Communion and our lives are made one in His love. The first part will invite us to ponder what we believe about this "inestimable gift," as St. John Paul said.

Long before COVID, attendance at Mass has been decreasing. The second part will reflect on the centrality of the Eucharistic liturgy as the heart of our belonging and service in the Church and in the world.

As Jesus' words to the apostles tell us, the Eucharist cannot be compartmentalized; it is never a private act of devotion but is meant to transform everything we say and do. The third part will clarify that to receive Communion is to make a public profession that we are in fact in communion – united in faith and practice with Christ our Head and with the Church, His Body.

The theme of "Eucharistic consistency" (or "coherence") is not new. Pope Emeritus Benedict put it eloquently in his 2011 Corpus Christi homily: "Those who recognize Jesus in the sacred Host, recognize him in their suffering brother or sister, in those who hunger and thirst, who are strangers, naked, sick or in prison; and they are attentive to every person, they work in practice for all who are in need."

In our unsettled times, Archbishop Gomez has asked all of us to pray for the bishops as they prepare this Eucharistic teaching. Please join me in doing so, that we may all grow in our friendship with Jesus.

Fr. Tom

Eternal Rest grant unto them.

BAPTISMS

We welcome the following child baptized into our parish family and the Christian community:

Marli Mae Blommel, daughter of Jason & Heidie baptized at SFX.

Book Discussion on Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church

One of the most common concerns shared with pastors and others in ministry revolves around a question worded something like this: "My children / grandchildren don't go to church anymore. What can I do?"

Brandon Vogt's book, Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church, does not answer that question. I appreciate that, because as the author notes humbly, there is no single or simple answer. What the book does, however, is provide some strategies to pray, to engage in respectful and sincere listening, and to invite.

If this question is on your heart, or if you want to learn more about supporting others in the journey of faith, you are invited to join in a book discussion on Return.

The study will run five weeks and offers two time-slots:

Mondays from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at Sacred Heart from July 19 to August 16

Thursdays from 9:00-10:30 a.m. at Annunciation from July 22 to August 19

You may attend either session depending on your schedule for each week.

The book is 225 pages, and available on Kindle for around $7.00; used copies are around $25; new copies have risen to $50. Participants can share a book if they wish.

While we will recap key points from the chapters read each week, the time will largely involve conversation and sharing. It is intended both for learning and mutual support in our common work of evangelization.

All from our ACC are welcome, and beyond. To assist with preparation, please contact Cindy at Annunciation (252-1729) or Jill at Sacred Heart (251-8115) to register. There is no cost other than the book itself. If you need us to provide a copy, let us know and we will do our best to find used copies for you.

ONLINE GIVING

Did you know that we have two options for automatic giving? You can submit an ACH form that will make your donation directly from the checking or savings account you choose, or you can use our online system to set up automatic giving on either your credit card or a bank account. SECURITY UPGRADE UPDATE

For the safety of all who come to our building, we are in the process of upgrading our systems to monitor access to the space during office hours. One change you will see is a remote lock at Door 5 (the office entry) that will function much like an apartment door buzzer. You will push the button on the wall to let someone in the office know you would like to enter; someone from the office will release the lock to let you into the building. Thank you for your understanding with these precautions to keep all of us safe. This button has been installed and we began using it July 6th.

Parish Raffle & Festival

The SFX Big Ticket raffle, online auction and Franny Flyer Run/Walk are being planned for September. Other events surrounding our annual festival are in limbo. We are looking for parishioners to become new chairperson(s) to head the annual parish festival. If you feel the call to organize this event, call Joe Schulte 320-250-1010 or Adam Vonderahe 320-252-1363.

We ask for donations of cash or gift cards to our $10k Big Ticket raffle. It is our hope to put together the raffle ticket and get it into the hands of parishioners by the first week of August. We would like commitments by the end of June. Our raffle is a great draw and raised $30k in ticket sales last year. Please contact the office if you wish to help by making a donation to the Big Ticket raffle, or to the festival in general – 252-1363.

In July, we will begin accepting items for the online auction, which again will be available through www.32auctions.com. We ask for new items only. Watch the bulletin for more details to come.

Registration for the 5K 10K Franny Flyer Run/Walk will take place later this Summer.

Rev. & dear Fr. Weyrens, and all our friends at St. Francis Xavier,

Thank you for your kind donation of candles and tapers to assist us in our monastic life and which we gratefully receive as an aid for your parish family and good intentions. May God reward you! Since we have the grace of living in the House of the Lord we consider it both our privilege and our duty to pray for those who ask our intercession and who support us with their offerings, so please know that you are all enfolded in our prayers.

We enclose here some of the items we are sending to our correspondents this Lent. We made special mention of the Sacred Hearts Guardians and Shelters who give a Christian burial to embryonic children who would otherwise be disposed of as medical waste. We try to keep the cause for human life front and center for "Without the Creator, the creature vanishes."

May God reward your charity, please be assured of our prayers for your holy ministry and parish family,

The Kindergartener

A Kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom as the children drew pictures. The teacher would occasionally walk around and see each child's artwork. As she approached one little girl who was working especially hard, she asked what the drawing was.

The little girl told her: "I'm drawing God!"

"But sweetie," the teacher replied, "no one actually knows what God looks like."

Automatically, the little girl continued drawing and said, "well, they certainly will in a minute!"
