MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

From Safari.....

Happy Fourth of July! Picnics, festivals, family gatherings, athletic events, fireworks will be among the many activities today. We recall the words of our founders, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men [sic] are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." How ever you celebrate, have a great day!

As a country we have much to be proud about ---such as the U.S. Bill of Rights, which guarantees freedom of religion, speech, assembly and the press ---, our nation is that beacon on the hill.

At the same time, our nation also walks in darkness --- Legalized abortion; being one of the world's major arms merchant; possessing the world's most dangerous nuclear arsenal; more than 11 million children living in poverty; rampant pornography; only giving less than 1 percent of its annual income to the poor of the world--- and is in need of healing and spiritual conversion.

A question to reflect on: "Am I a Catholic American? Or am I an American Catholic?" What comes first, our country or our God?

As one writer noted, "The question of whether Christians should help shape public policy and culture is hardly new. In 1935, Benedictine monk and American liturgical pioneer Virgil Michel clearly came down on the side of Catholic involvement in social problems. In a bold essay titled "Liturgy as the Basis for Social Regeneration," Michel quoted Popes Pius X and Pius XI to show that what happens at liturgy is the source of the Christian spirit that transforms society. Michel envisioned Catholics pouring out of their parish churches after Mass committed to applying the Christian spirit to economic, political and social problems. Michel's essay placed the church in the midst of the world as its proper context, not as a transcendent or separate entity existing in some spiritual realm. His writings also affirmed that Catholic lay people are the means by which the Christian spirit reaches out into the modern world; they are the salt, light and leaven that transform the marketplace, factory floor, farm, university and statehouse."

Our current polarized politics are not good for our country in the long run. There are many hard decisions that need to be made in order for our country to be that true beacon shining on a hill for others to see and imitate. Come Holy Spirit guide us, give us the courage to act.

Today we begin a new chapter in our One in Christ Catholic Community. With the diocese having no priest to assign us as a sacramental minister, we will be relying on the generosity of our retired clergy to assist us on weekends. Thank you to Fathers Tim Baltes, Geno Doyle, Ralph Zimmerman, and Tom Olson who will be the primary retired clergy assisting us on weekends.

Have a faith filled week,

Fr. Ron

WELCOME

The One in Christ Catholic Communities welcome Sandra Kremers to our Pastoral Team. Sandee will be taking over the position of pastoral ministry at St. Francis Xavier, from Deb Rudolph, who recently retired. We are also pleased to announce that Danna Gasperlin will take on some pastoral ministry duties in St. Stephen, while continuing as Faith Formation and Youth Minister director. Sandee and Danna will collaborate with the other pastoral ministers in our One in Christ Catholic Communities.

STEWARDSHIP

Many people will be celebrating this weekend. The 4th of July is the day we celebrate our country's Independence.

Each of us has another independence that we can celebrate.

That is independence from the material things our culture tells us we need in order to be happy. We can choose to follow the worldly path cluttered with "stuff" or we can prayerfully look at our lives and decide if our time, talents and treasure would be better spent by helping others. It is ok to have material things but we must use them in the right way.

Remember, everything we have is a gift from God. Be safe and be well.

Book Discussion on Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church

One of the most common concerns shared with pastors and others in ministry revolves around a question worded something like this: "My children / grandchildren don't go to church anymore. What can I do?"

Brandon Vogt's book, Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church, does not answer that question. I appreciate that, because as the author notes humbly, there is no single or simple answer. What the book does, however, is provide some strategies to pray, to engage in respectful and sincere listening, and to invite.

If this question is on your heart, or if you want to learn more about supporting others in the journey of faith, you are invited to join in a book discussion on Return.

The study will run five weeks and offers two time-slots:

Mondays from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at Sacred Heart from July 19 to August 16

Thursdays from 9:00-10:30 a.m. at Annunciation from July 22 to August 19

You may attend either session depending on your schedule for each week.

The book is 225 pages, and available on Kindle for around $7.00; used copies are around $25; new copies have risen to $50. Participants can share a book if they wish.

While we will recap key points from the chapters read each week, the time will largely involve conversation and sharing. It is intended both for learning and mutual support in our common work of evangelization.

All from our ACC are welcome, and beyond. To assist with preparation, please contact Cindy at Annunciation (252-1729) or Jill at Sacred Heart (251-8115) to register. There is no cost other than the book itself. If you need us to provide a copy, let us know and we will do our best to find used copies for you.

Parish Raffle & Festival

The SFX Big Ticket raffle, online auction and Franny Flyer Run/Walk are being planned for September. Other events surrounding our annual festival are in limbo.
