MINISTRY & LIFE PERSPECTIVES

Psychologist William James wrote a book called "Varieties of Religious Experience." In this classic book, James describes moments when people have experienced God's presence in their lives in remarkable ways. For example, a man was standing on a hillside at night. Suddenly, he felt his soul soaring upward as he sensed a powerful presence. He says: "I could not any more have doubted that God was there than that I was. Indeed, I felt myself to be, if possible, the less real of the two." While praying in church before the Blessed Sacrament, praying in community, or reaching out to someone in need, a sense of peace overcomes you that words cannot express.

These examples give us insight into what the disciples must have experienced in today's gospel. While Jesus was praying in their presence, suddenly "he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white." Then "a cloud...cast a shadow over them, and ...from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.'" That moment strengthened their faith in a remarkable way.

The experiences William James described, and those felt by the disciples on the mountain is what theologians call "a moment of grace." It is a moment when the border between heaven and earth seems to fade for a brief period and the glory of God shines into our world. It is a moment when, for a split second in time, God's presence is felt in our lives, and we get a glimpse of eternity.

Moments of Grace are gifts from God. We need to be open, dispose ourselves to them, be present and alert. How do we awaken or open ourselves up to these God Moments, Moments of Grace?

The Book "Five Practices of Fruitful Living" by Robert C. Schnase, discusses practicing radical receptivity to God and others, along with attentiveness on the importance of noticing what God notices and seeing the world through God's eyes. It takes a passionate attentiveness to notice the movement of the spirit, to hear whispers of God's grace, to discern the presence and power of God among us, to identify the calling of God.

As we practice spiritual attentiveness, we begin to see the world differently. We begin to question: Where is God in this? What does God want me to attend to? What does the world look like through God's eyes?

The message is wonderfully simple but profoundly important. Be alert. Notice people. Notice God at work in Loving Service. Listen for God in Prayer, and God's calling. Look for the coming of Christ again and again into our lives and the lives of others around us as we continue this Lenten Journey.

Blessings, Dcn Joe

The Common Thread of Holy Saturday: How a Trauma Lens Can Unite and Strengthen our Catholic Church

Many people spend Holy Saturday (trauma's aftermath), by getting ready for Easter Sunday (triumphal new life), which reflects our overall unease with trauma (Good Friday). Trauma and its aftermath are viewed as something to "get over" as soon as possible, otherwise we risk shame and stigma. We forget: the resurrected Christ still carried his wounds. This presentation will explore the aftermath of trauma, and how use of a trauma lens can serve as powerful witness. We will discuss pastoral responses that help or hurt and will close with a look at what a trauma-responsive Catholic Church might look like.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER PARISH

"Listen to Him"

"I believe in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting." These words that end the Nicene Creed became the topic of conversation one day after morning Mass as a few parishioners gathered to share a cup of coffee. We were questioning which of our bodies would be resurrected; a young slim 16-year-old body or an older version with a little more girth. I wondered if God would let us have a say in it. Fr. Bob Landsberger happen to be there with us that morning and he said to me, "Oh Deb, the body that will be resurrected will be a glorified body, more beautiful than you can imagine." I was a bit taken back by the thought; that each of our bodies will be glorified and it immediately reminded me of the Gospel we hear today; the Gospel account of The Transfiguration.

Jesus took three of his disciples, Peter, James, and John, with him to a mountain top to pray and while he was praying Jesus was transfigured; "his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white." And there with them stood two holy men "who appeared in glory" and spoke of how Jesus would leave Jerusalem. Even in their glory, the disciples recognized Moses and Elijah as their ancestors in faith. This incredible incident was a prelude to how Jesus would be transformed from death into new life. It was a taste of the glory that his dying and rising would accomplish for all of us! That may be why Peter asked about building three tents, that they might remain there in that moment of glory.

And then came the voice from a cloud that shadowed the brilliance and God spoke: "This is my beloved Son, listen to him." Simple, direct instruction for the disciples and for us: "Listen to him." When and how do we listen to the Son of God? Are we intentional about hearing the Word that is shared at Mass? Do we spend time in prayer reading the Word of God? Are our hearts and minds open that we might hear Jesus speaking to us? Listen to him. Take time and be deliberate. Listen to him. If we can do that and then go forth and live our lives according to what Jesus has spoken, then we, too, will be glorified. We too, will become dazzling as we stand with Jesus Christ. By our faith and our actions, we will know the beauty of eternal life – we will be transfigured in glory beyond our imagining!

In awe and wonder of Jesus Christ,
Deb Rudolph

Upcoming Event – 2021 Parish Fish Fry

A parish fish fry is being planned for Friday, March 26th. The same great Franny Fish will be served, but things will be different due to current conditions with Covid-19 restrictions. It will be a curbside pick-up event with some limited delivery to locations that will have multiple drop-offs . . . such as long term care facilities and larger apartment complexes. To keep things safe and prepare for unknowns, there will be a limit of 500 meals prepared. The menu will be slightly reduced because of the "to go" nature of the meal. Please watch for ticket and ordering details in the next couple of weeks.

Help is needed to prepare, package and deliver the fish fry dinners. Specifically, we are looking for volunteers who have worked in the kitchen during past fish fries. Some duties may be changed but experience in the kitchen is welcomed.

This will be a faith formation program fundraiser for St. Francis Xavier with a matching grant by Catholic United Financial as in the past. A sign-up genius will go out inviting helpers (open to anybody in the parish!) in the near future, but if you want to get ahead of that, please contact Tom Offerdahl at 320-290-3228 or email tomndiofferdahl@gmail.com or Jake Schneider at 320-761-7143 or email jakeschneider34@gmail.com. Looking forward to some fish and fun!

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross will be led every Friday at 5:30pm at St. Francis Xavier throughout Lent, except Good Friday. Please sign up to carry the cross or a candle. Sign up sheets are in the Library.
